With very much frustration I have just determined that I am not receiving incoming calls on my phone (936.856.7314) but I can make out going calls and my cell phone does not work in the area that I live. Verizon is scheduled to repair their line on Monday (25th) between 8:00am - 5:00pm; therefore, should you need to contact me send me a email and I will return your call. Living in the country does have set backs!!!
